The Nebraska Economics and Business Association (NEBA) invites interested students to submit papers for possible presentation at the annual Fall Conference. Students will be awarded $200 per paper, lunch, and a copy of the NEBA Journal, which will publish their paper (unless they choose otherwise).

WHAT: 2006 Great Plains Economics and Business Annual Conference

WHERE: Nebraska Wesleyan, Lincoln, NE

WHEN: October 27, 2006

ELIGIBILITY

- Entries must be written by undergraduate or graduate students who are in a Masters degree program (interpreted as less than 36 credit hours earned for Ph.D. students). Ph.D. students with more than 36 credit hours are not eligible for the student competition, but are encouraged to submit in the faculty sessions.

- The competition is open to currently enrolled students or those who were enrolled during the previous academic year. Only one paper may be submitted a year by a student (even as a co-author).

REQUIREMENTS

- Papers must be submitted to the Student Paper Coordinator by October 9, 2006.

- The paper cannot be more than 12 single-spaced, 8 1/2 x 11” pages including endnotes and bibliography. Further detailed instructions should be obtained from your department chairperson or faculty sponsor, or contact the coordinator named below.

- The topic may relate to any business or economic issue.

- The student author must present the paper in person at the Great Plains Economics and Business Annual Conference.
