CALL FOR STUDENT PAPERS

The Nebraska Economics and Business Association (NEBA) is inviting interested students to submit papers for possible presentation at the Great Plains Economic and Business Annual Conference. Student papers will be automatically entered into the Best Student Paper competition. Winners will receive a $200 cash award and recognition at the conference.

WHAT: 2015 Great Plains Economic and Business Annual Conference “Regional Economic Development & Policy”

WHERE: Wayne State College

WHEN: October 23, 2015

ELIGIBILITY
• Entries must be written by undergraduate or graduate students in a Masters program. Ph.D. candidates are not eligible for the student competition, but may submit as guest authors in the faculty sessions.

• The competition is open to currently enrolled students or those who were enrolled during the previous academic year. Only one paper may be submitted a year by a student (even as a co-author). Up to six student papers may be awarded $200.

• Other papers will have the option of being presented in a poster session and eligible for one award of $150.

REQUIREMENTS
• Papers must be submitted to the Student Paper Coordinator by September 25, 2015.

• The paper cannot be more than 12 single-spaced, 8 1/2 x 11” pages including endnotes and bibliography. Further detailed instructions should be obtained from your department chairperson or faculty sponsor, or contact the coordinator below.

• The topic may relate to any business or economic issue.

• The student author must present the paper in person at the Great Plains Economics and Business Annual Conference.
